The calanques of Piana are perhaps one of the most beautiful cycling routes in the world, both the view of the sea on one side and the rocks that stand like the fingers of a hand are majestic.

Back to Algajola via the calanques of Piana

Last stage of this tour of Corsica and perhaps one of the most beautiful. This stage goes through a series of small climbs, while passing through the famous calanques of Piana, those rocks that came out of nowhere and through which the road passes.

Three cols

The itinerary passes first through the Col of de la Croix, the Col of Palmarella and finally the Col de Marsolino, which will be the last challenge of this tour before reaching Algajola.

The Balagne

It was a beautiful experience, long live Corsica !
